Profiles

The Finest Ceilidh Band in the West of Scotland

Alison McNeill

Often called the "Demon Fiddler" her technique, musicianship and ability to charm her audiences has taken her all around the UK, Holland, Spain, America and Mexico. Alison has performed at many prestigious events including the opening of the Scottish Parliament and even a Scotland International Rugby Game!

She has performed and adjudicated at many Burns Events including International Burns Conferences, Cultural events for the Nazrul / Burns Centre where she appeared on Bangladeshi Television and has received standing ovations in Stirling Castle, Fernie Castle, Hafton Castle and Edinburgh Castle.

Alison is also in great demand as a violin and voice teacher taking one to one lessons and fiddle workshops as well as working with Inverclyde Junior Choir who were finalists in Choir of the Year Competition.

Scott McLean

Scott, from Glasgow, is a well established drummer who has been described by many as, "just pure genius". Having been tutored by Tom McNee since the age of eight, Scott has widened his talent in percussion from Full Drum Kit to the Peruvian Cajon. He has this incredible ability to play just about any inanimate object and transform it into a percussion instrument producing some of the most unbelievable sounds and rhythms.

Scott has been playing with Reely Jiggered for a number of years now and enjoys it immensely. He has been involved in many projects most notably the South West Arts & Music Project (SWAMP) which saw him perform at the Arches in Glasgow.

Fiona McNeill

As a singer/songwriter and musician, Fiona has supported Duncan Chisholm & Ivan Drever, The Groanbox Boys, The Wherries, Ditirambo, Duo Cajon and many others. She has performed at many functions as a solo artist treating audiences to many of her own adaptations of popular songs as well as some of her own creations. Fiona, with her charm and wit, also hosts the Royal Gourock Yacht Club's regular Open Mic nights.

Fiona along with her sister, Alison, take music into schools to promote Scottish traditional music as well as classical music. Fiona's plays the violin, guitar, mandolin, tenor banjo, drums (full kit), Bodhran and has recently taken up the bass guitar.

"Hafton Castle host many functions where Reely Jiggered have performed and each event has been superb, with great musical skill, vitality, a wide range of music and especially a deep affinity for Scottish Traditional Music."
